CEO Nancy Rappaport Sails into Retirement

For the past 15 years, CEO Nancy Rappaport has been at the helm of PriorityONE Credit Union of Florida. Under her guidance, PriorityONE CU saw significant growth in assets and loan volume as well as product offerings.

The captain of our ship has been many things to many people: a visionary, a networker, a teacher, and a mentor. As a result, the footprint of our credit union grew in the community with participation in many worthy causes, including Habitat for Humanity, Breast Cancer Awareness and Feeding South Florida.

Nancy also garnered several honors as a business and community leader, being named one of the Top 10 Women in a Not-for-Profit business in South Florida and honored with the Hero of the Year Award by the Sunrise Chamber of Commerce.

Although the COVID-19 pandemic presented an unforeseeable and unimaginable challenge, Nancy rose to the occasion and instituted services to assist members who faced adverse financial issues during this difficult time.

A true leader is someone who sets an example for all others to follow. Over the years, Nancy provided strategic direction for our organization, was instrumental in implementing programs that enabled the credit union to positively impact the lives of our members and showed caring for our employees that helped us achieve success.

On behalf of the credit union Board of Directors and staff, we thank Nancy for her outstanding leadership and dedication to PriorityONE CU. We wish her well as she sails into retirement.

Tips to Avoid FRAUD & SCAMS

FREE TRIAL OFFERS: Not free! Look for hidden terms and conditions in fine print! Don't let "FREE" cost you!

COUNTERFEIT CHECKS: Talk to us about checks received from complete strangers. Don't deposit a fake check, you are responsible!

INVESTMENT SCAMS: The promise that you will make money quickly, get big payouts or guaranteed returns...sounds too good to be true, right? Research before you invest!

MONEY MULE SCAMS: Scammers may try to use you to move stolen money. If you help them, you are a money mule! Never give your financial details to anyone you meet on a dating website or work-at-home job offer with the request to receive and transfer money.
